WELCOME TO LIGHT BEARERS CONVOCATION

Welcome

WELCOME TO THE 30TH ANNUAL LIGHT BEARERS CONVOCATION!

It's hard to believe we've been doing this event for 30 years. And here we are yet again, drawn together for a reason. Our hearts beat in unison with a shared passion.

Jesus!

Each of us has gotten a glimpse of who He is. The glory, the beauty, and the power of His love has arrested our attention and made us hunger for more. We know Him, but we want to know Him more—more intelligently, adding definition, color and detail to our knowledge of His character. We love Him, but we want to love Him more—more passionately, increasing our sensitivity for Him and deepening our desire to serve Him.

And, so, here we are for a spiritual feast of Bible study and fellowship with Jesus as our shared center of focus.

We are so glad you're here!

In Christ,

Ty

Ty Gibson

PARENTS WITH CHILDREN

FOR YOUR SAFETY

- » The speed limit through campus is 5 mph. Please watch for children and pedestrians.
- » Do not camp under the cottonwood trees, as they can fall.
- » Do not allow unsupervised children to play near the water (river and fountain).

PROPER BEHAVIOR

Children should be instructed in proper behavior on campus and in keeping the campus and restrooms clean. Please ensure children with bicycles or skateboards use caution, go slow and watch for pedestrians throughout campus.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Parents must supervise their children when children are not in meetings.

- » Small children should not be sent to meetings designed for older ages. Out of respect for teachers, please pick up your children as soon as their meetings end.
- » Children's classes are scheduled so parents can attend the adult meetings; they are not intended as a babysitting service.
- » If your child isn't walking, they need to be in a carrier or stroller when they are dropped off for their meeting.

2014 PUBLISHING PROJECTS

Already this year, we've printed 8,426,330 pieces of gospel-filled literature and sent it to Tanzania, Jamaica, Democratic Republic of Congo, South Africa, and Papua New Guinea. By the end of the year, we plan to send additional containers to the following countries:

- » Dominican Republic
- » Antigua
- » Botswana
- » Zambia
- » Nigeria
- » Malawi
- » Kenya

Thank you for your prayers and financial support. We could not do what we do without you.

ON SABBATH THERE WILL BE ONE OFFERING TAKEN FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE PUBLISHING WORK OF LIGHT BEARERS.

JAMES RAFFERTY

James is co-director of Light Bearers. He became a follower of Jesus Christ at 21, and sensed early on God's call to preach the good news of a crucified and risen Savior. Since that initial urging, the Holy Spirit has opened doors for James to share God's incomparable love the world over. In addition to his preaching ministry, he also conducts seminars on the books of Daniel and Revelation for pastors and laity alike. James is married to his wife of 22 years, Risë. They have two wonderful children, Jeiel, and Kierra. They enjoy plenty of exercise, gardening and spending time with Jesus.

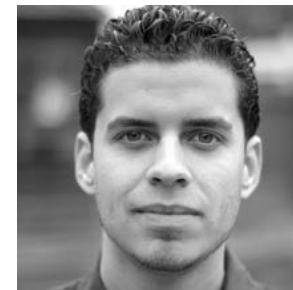

TY GIBSON

Ty is co-director of Light Bearers. A passionate communicator with a message that opens minds and moves hearts, Ty teaches around the world on a variety of topics that hold the love of Christ as central to the biblical narrative. His most recent creative work is the web-based video project, digma.com, offering short, insightful messages for those who aren't sure about God. He has authored eight books, including his most recent best-selling release, A God Named Desire. Ty is in love with a girl named Sue. They have three adult children +1, Amber & Jerome, Jason and Leah, and two grandchildren, Mason and Austin.

DAVID ASSCHERICK

David is co-director of Light Bearers and co-founder of ARISE. With a gifted clarity that wins both heart and mind, he has spent the last 15 years traveling the globe preaching and teaching the gospel of Jesus Christ. He authored his first book, God In Pain: Another Look at Evil, Suffering, and the Cross. He and Violeta, his wife of 13 years, are the happy parents of two boys, Landon and Jabel. They enjoy backpacking, climbing, running, fly fishing, and reading.

JEFFREY ROSARIO

Jeffrey is a Light Bearers evangelist, revivalist, and trainer. His "down to earth" demeanor, biblically-sound preaching, and apologetic leanings have made him a featured and favorite speaker all over the world, including such far flung places as Nepal and New Zealand. Jeffrey has been in full-time ministry since he was 17 years old. Jeffrey is married to Marianna, a nurse, and enjoys videography, reading, and avoiding the outdoors.

RISË RAFFERTY

Risë has worked for Light Bearers for over 20 years as a writer and public speaker. Her passion to help others realize that God has an amazing plan for them physically and spiritually is seen in her monthly ALIVE articles on various health topics. Risë has enjoyed sharing messages of physical, emotional, and relational health as well as on spiritual topics to various audiences. She is married to James Rafferty. She is a also a proud mother of two amazing kids.

FAITH TO FAITH

Righteousness by faith is a towering theme that is central to all of Scripture. It stretches like a thread from Genesis to Revelation. From the writings of the Old Testament prophets, to the gospel biographers, to the epistles, and finally to the Revelation, God's covenantal faithfulness is front and center.

From the moment Adam and Eve leave the garden, the story of Scripture begins to trace humanity's struggle to have right conceptions of who God is and how to properly relate to Him. As fallen human beings, we have a deep-seated tendency of approaching God on the basis of our own merit, instead of on the basis of God's own merit. We are prone to focus on what we need to do, not on what God has done, is doing, and will continue to do.

The reality of this struggle is painfully evident in the story of Cain and Abel, the second generation of human beings. And as ancient history presses forward, the theme of righteousness by faith continues to drive the narratives of the patriarchs of old.

Father Abraham struggled through this tension in attempting to manufacture his own righteousness instead of resting on God's promise. He eventually achieved his legacy: "He believed in the LORD, and He accounted it to him for righteousness" (Genesis 15:6). The next patriarchs, Isaac and Jacob, fill their own chapters in the Bible with their colorful lives of faith and failure, and the struggle continues.

Then we get to the epic scene at Mount Sinai. God presents His covenant law to the children of Israel and reveals His will for His chosen people. This is the church of the Old Testament. And what's their mindset? Where is their focus? Well, they're just the next episode in the age-old struggle, so they are merely absorbed on what they will "do" (Exodus 19:8; 24:3, 7).

Introduction

This human-effort approach comes crashing down throughout the remainder of the Old Testament. The covenant is in shambles. The picture is bleak.

Then the Messiah comes.

Jesus enters the picture to spell out, in real time, the true basis of the covenant. The life, death, and resurrection of Jesus marked a turning point in salvation's history.

The book of Acts chronicles the experience of the early Christians who rattle the Roman world with the gospel message: the Messiah is here and He is the embodiment of the righteousness of God.

Then come the New Testament letters. There's a passionate tone in these epistles because the apostles are concerned about the newly founded churches throughout the ancient Mediterranean world. The early Christians must get the basis of the gospel right, so with heartfelt appeals, the apostles send the message loud and clear: it's not about our own merit or faithfulness, it's about God's awesomeness and faithfulness. The epistles focus on the various issues related to righteousness by faith.

Then, finally, there's the Revelation. The apostle John depicts three angels flying in midair with an invitation for the human race. It's the last message of grace before the end of it all. It describes the "everlasting gospel" (Revelation 14:6) and those who embrace it. And what are those people like? Well, they are the kind of people who cling to "the faith of Jesus," and it is in that experiential context alone they "keep the commandments of God" (Revelation 14:12).

To grasp the beauty and essence of Scripture we must dwell upon and wrestle with the message of righteousness by faith. It is the message that rocked the world of the apostle Paul. It is the message that revolutionized the world of Martin Luther. It is the message that will finally illuminate the whole Earth with God's glory.

May the Spirit of God infuse us with the awesome implications of what this message can accomplish in our own lives today!

TABLE TALK

A LIGHT BEARERS CONVERSATION

Table Talk began airing on 3ABN last July and has received an overwhelmingly positive response. Here's what people are saying:

"This has become my favorite show! It has elevated my spiritual life."

"Amazing! Thank you so much for giving us this raw yet warm environment to learn about God!"

"Really down to earth, trendy, and yet profoundly biblical!"

"Wouldn't it be just lovely if everyone conducted Bible study this way? Very objective and just straight from the heart and from the Word of God."

We stepped out in faith and filmed the second season of Table Talk, titled, The Righteousness by Faith Series. We hope to produce many more, but we need your support to create future episodes.

Help fund the next Table Talk series by visiting lightbearers.org or calling 877.585.1111.

ARISE class ever. Starting with the first ARISE program back in Michigan in 2003 to the addition of the Australian program that began last year, we have been privileged to train twelve classes in twelve years.

We are already preparing for the 2015 program and can't wait to see how God will increase His blessings once again!

Last year's inaugural session of the ARISE Australia program was a huge success. How was God going to top Himself in 2014? One way was by increasing the number of students from 24 to 36! That's a 50% increase in a country that is supposedly sparse of church members that are interested in discipleship.

And just like last year, God blessed by providing not only quantity, but quality. Energetic, enthusiastic, engaged, and even a little crazy pretty much sums up this year's class.

As part of the program each year, we always conduct a full evangelistic presentation of Christ-centered messages to the public. There were many more decisions, but twelve were ready for baptism by the graduation Sabbath, May 10.

Twelve was a very fitting number because it was also the twelfth
